St. Mary's Primary, Largs

Formerly St. Mary's Roman Catholic School, School Street. This was run by the Roman Catholic Archbishop of Glasgow. It was established in 1895 for religious and educational purposes. The premises were used on Sundays for the religious instruction of children. The teacher in 1895 was Margaret Cairney who was born in 1856 and previously taught at Paisley Roman Catholic School. The original building is now demolished and the present St. Mary's Primary School opened in December 1962.

Records also held at school (as per 1983 survey)
